The Clubroom @ The Lewis Building, 35 Bull Street, Birmingham, B4 6EQ (this venue is next door to the Priory Rooms). The Eden Room: Hosted and curated by Eden Project Communities and Designs in Mind.
Out of Line: Exercises in embracing the chaos. It is very easy to live in our heads, sometimes we forget our bodies and they become vehicles to cart us about and get stuff done. Join us for movement and play, improvisations to experience the chaos of power, relationships, collaboration through feeling, sensation and non-verbal. Opportunity to move and/or draw within this.

The Clubroom @ The Lewis Building, 35 Bull Street, Birmingham, B4 6EQ (this venue is next door to the Priory Rooms)
 The Eden Room: Hosted and curated by Eden Project Communities and Designs in Mind.

All are welcome to our space to connect, open throughout the event for drop-in activities and discussions which will invite you to reflect, think, play and connect with yourself and others.

Whether you need space to breathe, gather your thoughts or nourish your mind this space offers open discussion, art, movement, reflection and is yours to connect and use throughout the two days.

Out of Line: Exercises in embracing the chaos. Play with inks, paper, charcoal, colour we attempt to take away the ability to control the outcome. Come and join us to experience the start of our creative process that opens up possibilities to create great work. In addition, your contribution here will make a difference as we bring it all together in a surprising and stunning collaboration.

The River of Reflection: Come and contribute your thoughts, ideas and hopes to our river as it grows across the walls throughout the event. Share your reflections on the conversations you have had, and sessions you have attended, and see how the experiences of others mirrors and differs from your own
